

I do not believe there should be any "exceptions" to the no call law in Indiana.
If I want/need a loan or other financial information, I will contact the institute of my choice when I feel like it!